

Map of the Katsuragi River basin (大和川流域) in Nara Prefecture, Japan. The map shows the Katsuragi River (大和川) flowing from the north to the south, with numerous tributaries including the Yodo River (淀川), Arima River (阿礼川), and others. The map also shows the surrounding prefectures of Osaka (大阪府), Kyoto (京都府), and Nara (奈良県). A legend in the bottom right corner identifies the symbols for the river basin boundary (orange line), the Katsuragi River basin (red dashed line), and the water level gauge (blue line).
